Narcissus Club Has Party.
The officers of the Narcissus Club gave a George Washington party Saturday night at the home of the president of the club, Mrs. Bert Stam, of Northview, from 11 o'clock.
The party was given in honor of the husbands of the ladies of the club. A very delightful time was reported by all who attended. Charles Moine gave several beautiful solos. Mrs. J. C. Crim gave some splendid piano solos. A good biography of Washington's life was read by Mrs. Jesse Snyder and some very interesting and appropriate contests were also enjoyed. The national colors were used to decorate the rooms and red carnations were given as favors. At a seasonable hour a most delicious two-course luncheon was served by the hostesses, Mesdames Stam, Eschenfelder Snyder, Malfregeot and Swisher.

Those who enjoyed the affair were Mr. and Mrs. Bert Stam, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Eschenfelder, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Snyder, Mr. and Mrs. August Malfregeot, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Swisher, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Moine, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Crim, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Claudius P. Gerard, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Morel, Mrs. J. H. Buffington, Mrs. John H. Keys and Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Moore, of Fairmont.

Delightfully Received.
Miss Mallott and her class in domestic science of the Kennedy school were delightfully received from 3 to 4 o'clock Monday afternoon by the members of the firm of the Imperial Ice Cream Company. With great courtesy and attention they were taken all through the building and shown the complete sanitation method of the manufacture of ice cream in all its varied forms and moulds.

At the close of the exhibition, ices and fruit punch were refreshingly served to the faculty and pupils who were much interested in the demonstration and fully appreciated the attention shown them.

Charming Dinner.
A charmingly appointed dinner was given Monday evening by Mr. and Mrs. Harry B. Curtin, complimentary to Judge and Mrs. R. F. Raymond, of Newton, Mass., who are visiting guests of Mr. and Mrs. John L. Ruhl. Crisp carnations and similar brilliantly obtained in the floral decorations. Favors of corsage bouquets and boutonnieres were placed at the cover of each guest.

Covers were laid for Judge and Mrs. Raymond, Mr. and Mrs. John L. Ruhl, Mr. and Mrs. J. Hornor Davis, Mr. and Mrs. James W. Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Howell Cooper, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis M. Sutton, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Morris and Miss Scollay Page.

McClelland Bible Class.
The McClelland Bible class room is now open every evening in the week to members of the class and their friends. Tables, games, books and magazines have been installed. The room will serve as a meeting place for men and will help to meet their social needs. With no Young Men's Christian Association in the city it is felt that many will avail themselves of this opportunity.

Misses Leullette Entertain.
The Misses Charlotte and Margaret Leullette delightfully entertained a few of their friends at a party Tuesday evening at their home at Northview. Various games and music were the diversions of the evening. Misses Ella Howard and Leah Causin rendered beautiful selections on the piano. Miss Fannie Moine was the lucky one in winning the booby prize, while Miss Lillian Powell was the winner of the Washington statue. At a seasonable hour a delightful luncheon was served in the dining room assisted by Mrs. Frank Gregoire.

Those enjoying the evening were the Misses Leah Causin, Annett Richards, Ethel and Lillian Powell, Nellie Scory, Lucy Moine, Marie Calcas, Eugenia Kopp, Ella Howard, Germaine Charles, Bessie Great-house, Ethel Hickman, Helen Krueberger, Fannie Moine, Eva Rogers, Sissy Leullette and Messrs. Frank Daugeaux, Danton Causin, Mitchell Bestire, Fred Daugeaux, Joseph and Henry Leullette, "Jimmie" Barnes, Cecil Richards, George Carmilla, Gale Lambert, Charles Rolland, George Smith, Lynn Howard, Marvin Brown, Hugo and Albert Spelsburg, Clark Rogers, Alex. Holmes and Philip Viechte.

Missionary Meeting.
A very enthusiastic meeting of the Woman's Missionary Society was held in Saint Paul's Methodist Episcopal church, South, Tuesday evening. Besides the regular business, plans were completed for a chicken supper to be given in the church next Thursday evening beginning at 5 o'clock. Miss Tina Spiker was elected delegate to the annual meeting of the Woman's Missionary Society, which convenes at Ashland, Ky., March 8. Mrs. L. G. Peiry was elected alternate.

Quartet to Appear.
A mixed quartet from Pittsburg will appear in concert on Tuesday evening, March 21 in the First Baptist church. A most delightful program of both solo and ensemble work will be rendered and it promises to be most pleasing in the selection of numbers. The personnel of the quartet is as follows:
Soprano—Miss Marjorie Kell-Benton, of the First Baptist church.
Contralto—Miss Helen Helmer, of the Third Presbyterian church (substitute for Miss Christine Miller).
Baritone—Thomas Morris, Jr., soloist at East End Christian church.
Chester Humphries, a young Welch tenor, who has recently located in Pittsburg.

Are Hostesses.
Mrs. Henry Raymond and Miss Garrard were hostesses at a meeting of the Thursday Bridge club from 3 to 5 o'clock Monday afternoon. Tea was poured by Miss Garrard upon the arrival of the members and later auction bridge was played at two tables.

To Hold Reception.
Under the auspices of the Parish Aid Society of Christ Episcopal church, a reception of the members of the congregation will be held in the rectory on Thursday evening, March 2.

Tuesday Club Meets.
A very interesting meeting of the Tuesday Literary Club was held in the home of Mrs. John J. Davis on Lee street Tuesday afternoon, with Mrs. J. Hornor Davis and Mrs. J. Ward Russell leaders in the study of "Croations and Slavonians."

Art Class Meets.
Miss Nannie R. Lowe's art class held very interesting sessions Monday afternoon and evening. The following program was observed at the afternoon session:
The Temple of Karnet.
Mrs. William Newell
The Gotta Temples.
Mrs. George M. West

Parsonage Wedding.
Clem A. Thorn and Miss Myrtle L. Woods were married at 1 o'clock Tuesday afternoon at the parsonage of the First Methodist Episcopal church by the Rev. W. B. King, pastor of the church. Mr. and Mrs. Thorn will reside here.

A Surprise.
Mrs. J. J. Wetzel, assisted by the family and friends, gave a very delightful and enjoyable surprise to her husband, J. J. Wetzel, at their home on Middle road, near Wallace, Sunday evening. It being given in honor of Mr. Wetzel's birthday. Mr. Wetzel was very much surprised when he answered a knock at the door to find the porch filled with friends. Mr. Wetzel received a number of useful presents, a very fine rocking chair being one of them.

Those present were Omar W. Swiger, Robert S. Mick, Guy Bartlett, A. C. Kunkle, Charles L. Cavalier, W. E. McInnis, W. R. G. Hall, Clinton Wetzel, L. N. Dean, Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Gribble and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Dean. A very enjoyable evening was spent and a delicious luncheon was served after which the guests returned to their homes.

Mothers Club Meets.
The Broad Oaks Mothers Club held a most interesting meeting Saturday afternoon in the home of Mrs. E. A. Rider on South street in that suburb. Aside from its regular subject the meeting was in memory of Frances E. Willard. Mrs. Jesse Snyder was the leader.

Among the special features of the meeting were a vocal duet by little Misses Evelyn McDaniel and Virginia Mills. A very interesting and impressive talk on woman suffrage was made by Miss Eudora Ramsay, of South Carolina.

The meeting was attended by about forty-five persons. At a seasonable hour, delicious refreshments were served by the hostesses, Mrs. Harvey Downing and Mrs. Orville Winden.

To Give Reception.
Cards have been issued by Mrs. John Koblegard and Miss Lillie Koblegard for a reception they will give from 3 to 5 o'clock Monday afternoon, February 28, in their home on East Main street.

Dutch Supper.
The Otterbein Sisters of the United Brethren church of Stealey Heights will give a Dutch supper Tuesday evening, February 28 in the F. I. Day building on Milford street there. Everybody is invited.

Brilliant Banquet.
The banquet hall of the Hotel Gore was the scene of brilliancy and patriotism Tuesday night, the occasion being the celebration of George Washington's birthday by the members of the West Virginia Society of the Sons of the American Revolution. The hall was elaborately decorated with flags and tri-colored bunting groups of tall palms and ferns and with the innumerable electric lights, formed a pleasing background for the many guests seated at the banquet table. Promptly at 8:30 o'clock to the inspiring and patriotic strains of the orchestra, the guests were led to the banquet hall.

The long table was beautified by groupings of crimson roses, cyclamen carnations and similar, augmented by clusters of cherries and crimson and gold hatches. At the cover of each guest long stemmed crimson carnations were placed as favors.

George L. Duncan presided as toastmaster. All during the serving of a delicious menu, patriotic airs and songs were played by the Cadenza orchestra, followed by a toast on "Preparedness" by the Honorable Albert Blakeslee White, of Parkersburg. Judge Edward Grandison Smith in his courteous, graceful manner responded to a toast to "The Ladies."

In an eloquent and pleasing speech Charles H. Harding spoke well on "Saratoga," followed by Frederick J. Martin of Grafton, who gave a charming toast to "Our Ancestors Paved the Way."

Harvey F. Smith, the newly elected president closed the speech-making by a touching tribute to the memory of the late John Bassel, who as a charter member, was one of the society's most able and honored sons.

Mr. Bassel's brother, Colonel James Bassel, of Weston, was elected to membership at the business meeting of the society.
The especially invited guest list at the banquet was Mrs. W. Brent Maxwell, regent of the Daniel Davidson chapter of the Daughters of the Revolution; Mrs. Harvey F. Smith, vice-regent and Mrs. W. L. Stone, past regent. Covers were also laid for the Honorable Albert B. White, of Parkersburg; James P. Moreland, Morgantown; W. H. Morgan, Parkersburg; Frederick T. Martin, Grafton; Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Martin, Fairmont; Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Talbot, Phillips; Francis E. Nichols, Fairmont; Baird Mitchell, Wheeling; W. J. Boydston, Fairmont; Alexander Updegraff, Wheeling; Colonel Henry Hammond, Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. Hart, Mr. and Mrs. Edward G. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey F. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Frank L. Burdette.

Entertain Sons.
Mr. and Mrs. William Brent Maxwell entertained Tuesday afternoon in their beautiful Colonial home, the members of the West Virginia chapter of the Sons of the American Revolution, in honor of the birthday of George Washington, America's greatest hero and statesman. Silken flags were festooned in the stately hall, and in the large living room above the old colonial mantel, with a background of flags, hung a portrait of Washington. Tall, stately palms and groupings of ferns with clusters of brilliant flowers were brilliantly arranged through the rooms with flags and tricolors.

Mr. and Mrs. Maxwell were assisted in receiving the honor guests by the members of the Daniel Davidson chapter of the Daughters of the Revolution of which Mrs. Maxwell is a regent.
A large gold and white basket filled with white carnations, fuchsia and miniature flags, formed the charming centerpiece of the table in the dining room, where Mrs. W. L. Stone, past regent of the chapter, presided and were assisted by Misses Genevieve Harrison, Martha Maxwell, Mary Virginia Rapp, Janet Robinson and Martha Jarvis. A program of patriotic airs and ballads was played by the Cadenza orchestra during the hours of the reception.

Templars' Ball.
The ninth annual banquet of the Knight Templars was celebrated Tuesday evening in the Red Cross room of the Masonic temple and was one of the most brilliant and elaborate social affairs of the season. It being George Washington's birthday, flags, portraits of our great president and American heroes, were much in evidence, enhanced by spring blossoms of every kind, with garlands of smilax and groupings of potted plants. Promptly at 8 o'clock the doors of the banquet hall were thrown open and covers for 200 guests were laid at the banquet table, which had a brilliant floral setting of roses, sweet peas, violets and lilies, with vines of asparagus and smilax. Corsage bouquets of spring blossoms were given as favors to the women and girls who, in their charming evening costumes and the Sir knights in their brilliant uniforms presented a scene not soon to be forgotten by the many guests in attendance.

At 9 o'clock, the ball room, ablaze with innumerable electric lights and beaded with flags and brilliant floral decorations, was sought by the many guests and to the strains of the opening march played by the Cadenza orchestra behind a high hedge of potted plants and lattice of greenery, studded with spring blossoms, the march was led by Mr. and Mrs. Howard Cunningham, followed by nearly two hundred Sir Knights and their ladies. A charming program of sixteen dances was enjoyed until a late hour.
Among the out of town guests who attended were Mr. and Mrs. Plummer Hill, Mr. and Mrs. Basil H. Lucas, of Shilington; Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Nary and E. P. Koehert, of Wheeling; W. Lloyd Morris, of Morgantown; Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Holden, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Holden; E. C. Shahan, C. C. Wilson, of Salem.

Miss Post Entertains.
From 2:30 to 5 o'clock Tuesday afternoon, Miss Lena Post entertained a number of her friends. The rooms were decorated with flags and flowers. Music and games were enjoyed by the guests who were present.

Memorial Affair.
Notwithstanding the misty afternoon of Wednesday, quite a number attended the Ellen Wilson memorial tea given in the home of Mrs. Howell Cooper. The rooms were very attractive in their floral decorations of spring blossoms. Mrs. Harry B. Curtin and Mrs. Dudley D. Britt presided at the tea table and the aides were Mrs. Dorsey R. Potter, Mrs. Lucius Hoge, Misses Rebecca and Mary Ruhl, Miss Dorothy Brown and Miss Louise Davis. Quite a nice sum was netted, which will go toward the fund for the education of a mountaineer boy or girl of West Virginia.

Birthday Party.
A very enjoyable children's party was given from 4 to 6 o'clock Wednesday afternoon by Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Robertson at their home on Preston street in honor of their daughter, Virginia's twelfth birthday. A color scheme of pink and white was carried out in the decoration of the room. Various games were enjoyed by the merry youngsters. Miss Mary Johnson was the lucky one in winning the prize, while Katherine Street received the consolation prize.

At 8 o'clock the youngsters were invited to the dining room where ice cream, cake and candy were served from an artistic table which had for its centerpiece a basket filled with pink and white carnations and sweet peas. Dainty pink and white baskets filled with candy were given as favors. Mrs. Robertson was assisted in serving the guests by Miss Janet Brooks, of Belpro, O., her sister, and Miss Janet Lambie. Miss Virginia received many beautiful presents.

Those present were Katherine Griffith, Dorothy Griffith, Madeline Reeder, Dorothy Street, Katherine Street, Mabel Welch, Isabel Wood, Mary Johnson, Francis Bibbee, Edith Graham, Ruth Gallean, Kathryn Osborn, Mary Core, Wilma Wine, Virginia Barrett, Gail Higgins, Louise Garrett, Virginia Robertson, Charles Bibbee, Harold Robertson and Walter Robertson.

Husbands Are Guests.
The Golden Rule Sunshine Club met at the home of Mrs. Clarence L. Gardner Wednesday evening, and it being the anniversary of Mr. Gardner's birth, the husbands of the members were guests of the club. A very pleasant evening was spent in enjoying various games and some the music. The guests were favored with several readings by Miss Marguerite Gardner. At 10 o'clock the hostess, assisted by Mrs. H. C. Weed and Mrs. S. S. Howard, served delicious refreshments.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. B. A. Mann, Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Howard, Mr. and Mrs. John Post, Mr. and Mrs. Irwin Wood, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Robinson, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Keys, Mrs. W. W. Stephenson, Mrs. W. Bates, Mrs. H. C. Weed, and Misses Pearl Gardner, Ethel Robinson and Virginia Howard.

Club Meets.
A very enjoyable meeting of the Wednesday Three Table Bridge Club was held in the home of Mrs. Maybury Harrison from 3 to 5 o'clock Wednesday afternoon. Auction Bridge was played at three tables and at five o'clock tea and sandwiches were served by the hostess, Mrs. William D. Newell presiding at the tea table.

Club Meeting.
The Narcissus Club met Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Paul Schmidt, Jr., at Northview. A very pleasant afternoon was spent in music, fancy work and social converse. At 4 o'clock dainty refreshments were served by the hostess assisted by Mrs. C. Pettigard.

Those who attended were Mrs. Bert Stam, Mrs. A. Malfregeot, Mrs. Paul Morel, Mrs. Julius Causin, Mrs. J. C. Malfregeot, Mrs. Jesse J. Snyder, Mrs. J. C. Crim, Mrs. Charles Moine, Jr., Mrs. Edward Pendleton, Mrs. C. Pettigard and the hostess.

Chicken Pie Supper.
A chicken pie supper will be given next Thursday evening, March 2, at the First Presbyterian church by the Ladies' Aid Society of that church.

Install Officers.
Harrison Hive, No. 984, Ladies of the Modern Maccabees, installed officers for the ensuing year a recent night as follows:

Commander, Lennie E. Hoff; past commander, Katherine Kellerman; lieutenant commander, Germa Allen; chaplain, Leona Wheeler; finance keeper, Johanna Fulkner; record keeper, Mary E. Bartlett; vestress, Emma Doolittle; picket, Elizabeth Lohr; and sentinel, Elizabeth Riley.
State Deputy Kitty E. Moore acted as installing officer.

Annual Reception.
The annual reception of the sophomores of Washington Irving high school was held in the school gymnasium from 8 to 10:30 o'clock Monday evening. Music and games were the pleasant diversions of the evening. Miss Mae Crispy served refreshments. A most enjoyable evening was spent by all in attendance.

Class Entertains Another.
The married ladies' Bible class of the Christian church entertained the men's Bible class with a Martha Washington party Tuesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. McReynolds on Mulberry street. Music and readings were the diversion of the evening, and a clever scheme of tagging the men with Bible names and giving the ladies descriptive verses corresponding, thereby enabling them to take advantage of leap year and select their partners, afforded much merriment.
These two classes have grown to such proportions since the Rev. P. M. Bahr was called to the ministry of the church that more than one hundred assembled for the evening's entertainment.

The home was decorated with the national colors and the dining room in particular presented an appearance of "preparedness."
The members of the social committee in charge were attired in colonial costumes and much credit is due them and those who assisted for the splendid success of the evening's entertainment.

Flag and Bible Presented.
Friday afternoon Clarksburg Council, No. 30, Junior Order United American Mechanics, and Stonewall Council, No. 36, Daughters of America, presented a flag and Bible to the Morgan school in the Stealey addition. The following program was rendered:
Opening song—"America," by school.
Recitation—"Making the First Flag," two children.
Recitation—"Flag of Our Hearts," second grade.
Song—"Our Flag"—First grade.
Recitation—"The Boy Washington"—Fourth grade.
Recitation—"To the Flag"—Willis Barnett.
Song—"I am a Little Soldier Boy"—Third grade.
Recitation—"Patriotic Characters"—six children.
Song—"Hurrah for the Flag"—Third and fourth grades.
Recitation—"Making the First Flag"—Red, White and Blue.
Song—"Three Little Sisters"—First and second grades.
Flag salute by school.

The Bible was presented by Mrs. Laura M. Brown in the name of the Daughters of America, and was accepted by Prof. H. M. Waldenton for the board of education.
Song—"Little Red School House"—members of Daughters of America.
Presentation of the flag in the name of the Junior Order of United American Mechanics—W. W. Brown. The flag was accepted by Prof. F. L. Burdette.

As the flag was raised over the school the "Star Spangled Banner" was sung by pupils.

Endeavor Mass Meeting.
A mass meeting of the Stealey Heights, Adamston and Northview United Brethren churches, and the Methodist Protestant, Lutheran and Presbyterian churches of Clarksburg will be held at 2:30 o'clock Sunday afternoon in the Methodist Protestant church at 666 Locust street.

A committee, composed of one member from each of the societies, met this week to draft a constitution and by-laws suitable for a city union organization, and the same will be presented for approval at the Sunday afternoon meeting. It is urged that each society have as large a representation as possible in this mass meeting.

Oscar C. Wilt is president of the temporary organization, and Miss Josephine Sheets is secretary.

Ald Society Meets.
The Ladies Aid Society of the Methodist Episcopal church at Stealey Heights, which is without a roof-tree pending the completion of the new building, met at the home of Mrs. W. H. Rogers Friday afternoon. After the devotionals, which were led by the hostess, the regular order of business was followed.

Beautiful flowers and sacred music dignified the occasion.
The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Joseph Mallory.

To Appear Here.
Mrs. Elsa Gundling Duga, soprano, of Wheeling, and Mrs. Blanche Sanders Walker, pianist, of Pittsburg, will appear at the artists recital to be given by the Marcato Music Club at 2 o'clock instead of 3 o'clock Saturday afternoon, March 4, in the auditorium of the Masonic temple, with Mrs. Earl Spraker in charge of program. The following is a letter of appreciation written by Miss Christine Miller, of Pittsburg to Mrs. Walker:

"Dear Mrs. Walker,

"I want to thank you again for your beautiful accompaniments last night. They were sympathetic, most artistic and thoroughly satisfying and helpful. I look forward with pleasure to other recitals which we shall do together this season.

"Cordially yours,
"CHRISTINE MILLER"
Of Mrs. Duga, soprano, the "Musical America" has the following to say:

"After Mr. Freund's address Mrs. Elsa Gundling Duga, of Wheeling sang 'Vissi D'Arte,' by Puccini, 'A Little Blue Gray Dove,' by Saar; 'Melisande in the Woods,' by Goetz; and 'The Years at the Springs,' by Beach. Mrs. Duga has a fine style, her enunciation is clear and she has evidently been trained in a good school. She recently appeared before the Music League in New York, composed of prominent women, who have posed of prominent women, who have
